November 24th 2020

Through the Skylark federation's close links with Cumnor House school we would like to draw your attention to an opportunity for many of our musically minded children.

The Eddie Jarman Music Fund has been established in memory of the life of Eddie Jarman, a young music prodigy and former Cumnor pupil, who tragically died in August 2020 when, at the age of 14, he was struck by a speedboat while snorkelling. Eddie played the piano, violin, and double bass, and was never happier than when listening to his favourite Jazz and Bossa Nova tracks.

To celebrate the memory of Eddie's deep love of, and talent for, music his parents and sister have set up The Eddie Jarman Music Fund, offering children from local primary schools the opportunity to immerse themselves in the pleasure of learning and playing a musical instrument.

The fund enables parents to access financial support for music lessons and the hire of musical instruments. The children do not need to be music prodigies, but will need to demonstrate that they are keen, disciplined and committed to the process of learning a musical instrument.

If you feel your child or a child you know would be interested, please contact Olivia Henley, Foundation Manager as she would be delighted to hear from you.
